

Thank you for taking the time to use the PPQ Resale Noticeboard Facility and to read and understand the Terms and Conditions.

The service provided by this website is only available to individuals who can make legally binding contracts. The service is not available for the use of minors and/or those individuals under the age of eighteen years or any other individual who is prevented from entering into a binding contract.

A user is any person, who either browses, and/or list/s, and/or bid/s for, any plate product on this website.

As a user of the facility you expressly agree:

1. PPQ reserves the right to alter these Terms and Conditions from time to time. Any amendment/s shall be effective immediately upon loading to the website. Your continued use of the facility constitutes your agreement to the amended Terms and Conditions. The Terms and Conditions were last modified on 1 September 2009;
2. this service is provided by Personalised Plates Queensland (PPQ) on an "as is" and "as available" basis to assist with the resale of personalised number plates, without any warranty or condition, either express, implied or statutory. PPQ accepts no responsibility for any loss or gain arising from the use of this service, or any claim made by any of its users. By using this service to browse, buy or sell number plates, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions;
3. if you object to any of the Terms or Conditions or any modifications that are made from time to time, or are dissatisfied with the service in any way, you can terminate the listing, forfeiting all rights to claim on fees paid, by notifying PPQ at info@ppq.com.au;
4. PPQ reserves the right to terminate your listing with the service at any time if any of the Terms and Conditions are breached;
5. that if you are lodging a plate combination with the service for listing, you are the legal and rightful owner of that plate combination and have unencumbered rights to sell the plate combination;
6. that ownership for the plate combination you are submitting for listing is fully transferable. In Queensland, customised plates are non-transferable. It is recommended that you check with Queensland Transport or PPQ (for Queensland issued plate combinations) or your local transport authority (interstate or international plate combinations) to confirm that ownership of the plate combination is transferable before listing with this service;
7. to provide current, complete and accurate information about yourself that may be required during the registration, bidding, or listing process, or as prompted by the service. PPQ will not provide any personal information provided by you to any third party, other than PPQ or its agents in the marketing and selling of number plates;
8. not to use the service for any purpose which is considered illegal, or contravenes Local, State or Federal laws. Subject to PPQ's Privacy Policy, PPQ reserves the right to provide the contact and user information of any user of the Resale Noticeboard to any law enforcement or government agency, if it is apparent that the user is using or attempting to use the service for any unlawful purpose;
9. to comply with any law which applies to the use of the Service or to the sale, listing, bidding and browsing of items within the service;
10. not to transmit any unlawful, harassing, libellous, abusive, threatening, harmful, vulgar, obscene or otherwise objectionable material of any kind or nature. Please note that PPQ will be verifying the contents of each newly submitted listing prior to release to general public;
11. not to transmit any material that encourages conduct that could constitute a criminal offence, give rise to civil liability or otherwise violate any applicable state, national or international law or regulation;
12. that PPQ is merely acting as a service provider in those transactions taking place on this website. Title to any property listed on this website shall belong to the seller or buyer, as the case may be, and any disputes and/or disagreements between the buyer and seller must be addressed between the buyer and seller and PPQ shall not be held responsible in any way or manner;

13. that the method for settlement of monies due and payable as a result of the sale must be addressed between the buyer and seller and PPQ shall not be held responsible in any way or manner;
14. to pay required fees for listing personalised plates for sale by providing true and correct payment details as required. The current fee for listing a plate for sale is $30 for 3 months. PPQ reserves the right to amend the fee or fee structure from time to time, without notice;
15. not to hold PPQ or its affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives liable for any loss, whether direct, indirect or incidental, as a result of the use of the service or if the service becomes unavailable for whatever reason;
16. not to hold PPQ or its affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives liable for any taxes which may be incurred as a result of the sale of a plate combination;
17. to display common sense and act with caution when using the Service. There are risks involved when conducting business over the Internet and/or through listing services. PPQ cannot confirm the identity or location of its users, or whether users are under age or acting under false pretences. We encourage direct discussions and negotiations between users of this facility during the purchase or sale process. If you have any doubts regarding the intentions of the seller or buyer, we recommend using a trusted third party service to facilitate the final buy/sell transaction;
18. not to interfere or disrupt networks connected to or associated with the website, and to comply with all regulations, policies and procedures of networks connected to the website;
19. to not provide any electronic information package which contains viruses or other computer programming code and/or routines which are intended or designed to damage, interfere, intercept or extract data or information, or cause PPQ to lose (in whole or in part) the services of our ISPs or suppliers;
20. that the plate combination is available for sale at the time of listing and that placing a plate combination for sale obliges a seller to sell the plate combination at the price nominated. Listing a plate combination for sale is a legitimate offer to sell;
21. that you have the ability and full intention to pay for any plate combination for which you make a bid. Placing an offer to buy a plate combination is a legitimate offer to buy the plate combination at that price;
22. to complete the necessary transfer forms and to pay any transfer fees that may be due to Queensland Transport or any other authority. Queensland Transport currently charges a fee of $76.60 to transfer plate ownership and update the registration databases. This transfer fee is payable by the new owner. A copy of the Queensland Transport transfer form can be downloaded by clicking here. This form is in PDF format. This form should be completed by both parties and submitted with the applicable fee to your nearest Queensland Transport Customer Service Centre or returned to PPQ. This will ensure ownership of the plate combination will be transferred on Queensland Transport's databases. If you are not selling or purchasing a Queensland issued plate, you agree to consult your local transport authority for the required forms and associated fees that may be due.
23. PPQ reserves the right to contact any user of the service by electronic message or any other medium in relation to the service, or for any other legitimate purpose, subject to PPQ's Privacy Policy.
