

Remove and/or Attach Personalised/ Customised Number Plate/s Application

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995

Notes

- This form should be completed by the registered operator/s of the vehicle.
- Personalised plates can be attached to a vehicle registered in different name/s to the plate owner/s. The plate/s owners must complete and sign question 1(b).
- Customised plates can only be attached to a vehicle registered in exactly the same name/s as the plate owner/s.
- This form is to be used when one of the following circumstances apply:
 - you wish to remove personalised/customised number plates from a vehicle
 - you wish to attach personalised/customised number plates to a vehicle
 - you wish to remove personalised/customised number plates from one vehicle and attach the plates to another vehicle.
- If you are removing personalised plates from one vehicle and attaching to a vehicle in another person's name you will each have to complete a copy of this form.
- Evidence of Identity (EOI), such as a Queensland Driver Licence, must be provided at the time of lodgement for one of the registered operators of the vehicle and all plate owners. Refer to the separate Evidence of Identity Information Sheet (F4362) or www.tmr.qld.gov.au for EOI requirements.
- If someone is lodging this application on your behalf your representative is required to complete and sign question 2 and provide EOI.
- If you are removing standard number plates to attach personalised/customised plates, the standard plates must be returned with this application.
- You cannot attach or remove plates if the vehicle is under a Queensland Police Number Plate Confiscation Notice.
- For more information about replacing standard number plates and/or personalised/customised plates, go to www.tmr.qld.gov.au.
